

PSCI 101, American Government
IDEAL PROGRAM
COURSE SYLLABUS

Dear Student,

Please read the following course syllabus carefully, especially the course dates, times and location. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to communicate with the IDEAL office, your academic advisor, or the instructor.

The IDEAL degree-completion program is designed with the adult learner in mind. Adult learners approach learning with specific goals, want to be able to directly apply new learning to their work and personal lives, and tend to learn best when the coursework is problem-centered so that they are actively engaged in the learning process. In addition, adults bring rich and varied experience to the classroom, which becomes a valuable learning resource for other students.

The IDEAL Program assumes joint responsibility in the learning process. The activities and assignments in our classes build on the shared experience of all learners in each class. This is why each student's preparation, participation and interaction in class activities and discussions are critical to the success of each course. The accelerated format of each course requires a significant amount of time outside the classroom to prepare for and complete the course assignments. This varies between students and courses; however, students typically spend a minimum of ten-twelve hours per week on course material.

To participate in the IDEAL Program, it is expected that you will do the following:

1. Attend every class session. Be on time.
2. Obtain the required course materials prior to the first class session.
3. Complete the first assignment prior to the first class session and all subsequent assignments to the best of your ability.
4. Participate in the class discussions and demonstrate respect and consideration to the instructor and other students when they express themselves in discussion.

If you cannot perform these four expectations, it is recommended that you drop the course.

Missing one class session will drop the final grade by one letter grade (for example if the student earned a grade of "B" in the course, the final grade would be a "C"). If a student misses two or more classes a grade of F will be entered as their final grade.

Cheating and Plagiarism

It is the student's responsibility to become familiar with and adhere to the standards set forth in the policies on cheating and plagiarism as defined in Chapters 2 and 5 of the Key to UB

<http://www.bridgeport.edu/pages/2623.asp> or the appropriate graduate program handbook

E-mail correspondence

It is imperative that you check your UB e-mail on a regular basis. All written correspondence, to include IDEAL and the University will be sent to you through his e-mail. The University can no longer correspond to your personal e-mail account(s).

Ethics Statement of Confidentiality

An integral component of an IDEAL course is student and faculty expression of personal experiences for the purpose of facilitating coursework. Students enrolled in the program are expected to honor confidentiality as it pertains to student disclosure. Shared information, comments, or opinions expressed by another student or the faculty member during the course of classroom discussion should never be used in a manner which is intended to humiliate, embarrass, harass, damage, or otherwise injure other students in their personal, public, or business lives. In addition, confidentiality must be upheld by not disclosing any information that would identify any particular individual.

Government by the People, Magleby & Light, Alternate Edition ISBN 9780205828456, 2011 24th edition

The American system of government is examined to show: How it was first created; how it is constructed; how its various working parts operate, both individually and together; and how its power is controlled by the American political process.

COURSE OBJECTIVE:

The course objective is to provide the student with an exposure to and understanding of:

The historical events which served as the basis for the establishment and operation of a national government with a social order based upon a system of law conceived within a single written document;

The elements, nature, purpose, function, and organization of the United States' system of government and politics;

The roles, functions, powers and duties of the political institutional components of the United States' system of government;

The political, legislative & legal process and the forces influencing them; and

The freedoms and liberties afforded by the United States' system of government.

THE COURSE EXPECTATIONS:

The student is expected to have completed the assigned readings prior to attending class for each of the five class sessions, and to be prepared to contribute to the discussion of the session's topics.

FOUR (4) WEEKLY TESTS; FINAL EXAM

On each of the second, third, fourth and fifth weeks of the course, students will be given a twenty (20) question test, each of which will be made up of multiple-choice, fill-in-the-blank and true-false questions.

Also— on the fifth and final week of the course, students will be given a take-home final exam requiring the student to write at least two (2) essay answers from a selection of eight (8) essay questions. The students will be required to return by email their final exam essay answers to Prof. Di Mattia within a limited period of time of several days, to be announced on the final night of class.

GRADING OF THE FOUR WEEKLY TESTS:

The four (4) tests shall be graded based on the following scale: 100% to 96%=A; 95% to 90%=A-; 89% to 85%=B+; 84% to 80%=B; 79% to 75%=B-; 74% to 70%=C+; 69% to 65%=C; 64% to 60%=C-; 59% to 55%=D+; 54% to 50%=D; 49% to 45%=D-; 44% to 0%=F.

THE FINAL EXAM: GRADING OF FINAL EXAM ESSAY ANSWERS:

Each of the student's final exam essay answers shall be graded based upon following five (5) elements contained in the student's essay answer:

- (1) The student's recognition of the issues & concepts presented in the final exam essay question
- (2) The student's discussion and analysis of those issues & concepts
- (3) The student's conclusion(s) about those issues and concepts
- (4) The student's overall organization of the essay answer
- (5) The student's attention and care to spelling, use of language (grammar), overall readability

GRADE FOR THE COURSE:

The student's grade for the course shall be the average of the student's overall test average, worth 45% of the student's course grade, and the student's final exam grade, also worth 45% of the student's course grade. Additionally the student's grade for class participation shall be worth another 10% which may be used to adjust the student's final grade for the course.

CLASS ATTENDANCE / ACADEMIC POLICY:

Given that each class session is four (4) hours long, meeting once per week for only five (5) weeks, it is essential a student attend all class sessions. Missing even one class will place a student at a disadvantage and requires that a student's final grade be reduced by one full letter grade. For example, if a student has otherwise maintained an A, the student's final grade can be limited to a B; or if a student has otherwise maintained a B, the student can be limited to a final grade of C. Missing two (2) classes will result in an F for the final course grade. It is the students' responsibility to familiarize themselves with and adhere to the standards set forth in the policies on cheating and plagiarism as defined in Chapters 2 and 5 of the Key to UB <http://www.bridgeport.edu/pages/2623.asp> or the appropriate graduate program handbook.

ACADEMIC POLICIES

Attendance Policy

Classroom attendance is an integral part of the academic experience; therefore, students are expected to attend all class sessions. If an absence is unavoidable, the student, prior to class, should advise the instructor. Arrangements should be made at that time for additional assignments if appropriate. It is also expected that students arrive on time and not leave until the class is dismissed. Tardiness will result in a reduced grade for the course. If you cannot attend every class session you should consider dropping the course.

IMPORTANT:

- Missing one class session will drop the final grade by one letter grade (for example if the student earned a grade of “B” in the course, the final grade would be a “C”).
- Missing two or more class sessions will be cause for a failing grade.

Incomplete grade

An incomplete may be given, at the discretion of the instructor, to those students who fail to complete assignments due the last day of your course. These would include absence from a final examination or inability to complete terminal assignments (papers, presentations) due to illness, employment conflicts, etc.

Incompletes will not be given to a student who fails to complete any assignment during the term. At the discretion of the instructor, these assignments could be completed no later than the last scheduled day of your class.

Cell Phones

Cell phones must be turned off while in the classroom. A cell phone call is disruptive and disrespectful to the other students in the class.

Academic Dishonesty

We are committed to intellectual integrity in our academic pursuits; therefore, the IDEAL program prohibits all forms of academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty is normally defined as, but not limited to, the following two categories:

Cheating – Using inappropriate sources of information in an assignment or on a test. The following are examples of cheating taken from real student experiences:

Case #1: A student is enrolled in an introductory computer-programming course. He has co-workers who program in the same language as his final project. As the end of the term approaches, he wonders how he will find the time to get the project finished, and asks one of his co-workers for help. His co-worker hands him a disk with a complete program similar to the kind required for the course project. The student makes minor modifications to the program, and submits it under his own name.

Case #2: A student enrolled in a religious studies course has never taken a humanities or history course, and is unsure about how to structure a research paper. She is doing research on the World Wide Web, and comes across a paper written by a student from another university. Using her computer mouse, she copies and pastes the document into her word processor. She goes to great lengths to re-word the paper in her own style, but essentially leaves the content and organization the same.

Plagiarism – Intentional as well as unintentional failure to acknowledge sources as well as the use of commercially available so-called “research papers” without full recognition of the source. Presenting as one’s own, the ideas, words, or products of another. The following are examples of plagiarism taken from real student experiences:

Case #3: A student is conducting research for a Civil War research paper. He has reviewed work on the Internet as well as in the library. Finding helpful information, he has summarized his findings without citing his sources. He believes that minor paraphrasing is all that is necessary.

Case #4: A student is writing a paper that requires her to address specific topics and problems in the assigned course textbook. She takes the information directly from the textbook with slight modification, without giving any citation. She thinks that since it is the course textbook, she doesn’t have to use quotations or citations.

Academic dishonesty applies to all courses, assignments or exams completed by students and submitted as their own original work, whether in person or by electronic means. The University does not tolerate cheating in any form. It is a serious breach of conduct with serious consequences. Instructors have the right to determine the appropriate penalty for academic dishonesty in their own classes; generally, however, such acts will result in a failing grade for the assignment and/or the course. The penalty for subsequent acts of academic dishonesty may include expulsion.
