

PSYC 230 RB8W1
Abnormal Psychology
Fall 2014

Course Syllabus

Please read the following course syllabus carefully, especially the course dates, times and location. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to communicate with the IDEAL Program office, your academic advisor, or the instructor.

The IDEAL degree-completion program is designed with the adult learner in mind. Adult learners approach learning with specific goals, want to be able to directly apply new learning to their work and personal lives, and tend to learn best when the coursework is problem-centered so that they are actively engaged in the learning process. In addition, adults bring rich and varied experience to the classroom, which becomes a valuable learning resource for other students.

The IDEAL Program assumes joint responsibility in the learning process. The activities and assignments in the courses build on the shared experience of all learners in each class. This is why each student's preparation, participation and interaction in class activities and discussions are critical to the success of each course. The accelerated format of each course requires a significant amount of your time outside the classroom to prepare for and complete the course assignments. This varies between students and courses; however, students typically spend nine-twelve hours per week on course material.

To participate in the IDEAL Program, it is expected that you will do the following:

1. Attend every class session. Be on time.
2. Obtain the required course materials prior to the first class session.
3. Complete the first assignment prior to the first class session and all subsequent assignments to the best of your ability.
4. Participate in the class discussions and demonstrate respect and consideration to the instructor and other students when they express themselves in discussion.

If you cannot perform these four expectations, it is recommended that you drop the course. We look forward to your academic success in each course and the ultimate completion of your degree.

Course No. & Title: PSYC 230 RB8W1, Abnormal Psychology

Semester and Term: FALL 2014, 8/28/2014 - 10/16/2014

Class Meetings: Thursdays: 6:00pm - 9:00pm

Campus Location: Stamford

Instructor and contact information: Dima Grozeva, UB e-mail: dgrozeva@bridgeport.edu

Course Description: This course will provide an in depth review of a broad spectrum of psychopathological conditions, as defined by the DSM-5. The focus will be the study of thoughts, feeling and behaviors that interfere with psychologically adaptive functioning. The diagnoses, causes and appropriate treatments of different disorders will be discussed, including psychosis, personality disorders, anxiety, depression and adjustment difficulties.

Prerequisite Courses: PSYC 103 and PSYC 201 or 202

Course Code: HS-PE, LA, PSY, SsC, PSY-M, HSM, DM-PPR

Required Textbook:

Abnormal Psychology, Clinical Perspectives on Psychological Disorders (2013). Halgin, Richard & Whitbourne, Susan. 7th Edition, McGraw-Hill Publishers. ISBN 978-1-259-13338-1

To order the textbook, go to the bookstore website at <http://bridgeport.textbooktech.com/>
Select IDEAL Campus and login to the bookstore. Select the course and follow the instructions.

Learning Outcomes:

Upon completion of this course, the student should be able to:

- Discuss major contemporary perspectives and theories on the nature of abnormality and mental illness.
- Apply these theoretical perspectives in reviewing each of the conditions covered in the course.
- Describe the distinguishing features of major psychological disorders such as schizophrenia, anxiety disorders, depression, drug dependence, OCD/dissociative disorders and others, as classified in the DSM-5.
- Explain the clinical process of interviewing, diagnosing and treating clients.
- Describe important evidence-based treatment procedures used by clinicians and explain what treatments are used for certain conditions, discuss advantages and disadvantages of particular treatments methods.

First Assignment to be Completed Prior to the First Class Meeting:

In addition to reading the syllabus for the course, students are trusted to read the first two chapters of the required Textbook, Abnormal Psychology, Clinical Perspectives on Psychological Disorders (2013) and complete Online Quiz #1, posted on the course page under the Canvas online learning system. The quiz must be completed prior to attending the class on Thursday, 8/28/2014. Students are free to use the textbook when answering the quiz questions.

Assignments:

- Case Formulation: The paper for this class is intended to assist you in comprehensively grasping the theory, method, and research of a particular counseling approach in a creative (perhaps even fun) way. The assignment is for you to choose a real or fictional character (from literature, a movie, or TV) and design a comprehensive case formulation and treatment plan for this individual. The paper must include the following details: 1) brief psychosocial history of the character, ending with the presenting problem/complaint, 2) diagnostic impression (with a full description of symptoms, differential diagnoses, a multiaxial assessment), 3) proposed treatment plan from a specific psychotherapeutic orientation (e.g. cognitive behavioral treatment, aversion therapy, rehab, etc), and 4) a brief review of the efficacy literature addressing your choice of treatment for the specific individual/diagnosis. You can add details to the character's life in order to fill in unknown gaps – just be sure that whatever you add is consistent with the overall character and consistent with the background and diagnosis you describe. You should include at least 3 references. The paper should be double spaced and between 10-15 pages in length. The paper is due to me IN CLASS (hard copy please) on Thursday 10/16/14
- In-class Presentation on Case Formulation: Students are expected present the character they have chosen for the case formulation paper. A PowerPoint presentation along with a brief video that demonstrates the symptoms and presenting problems. Essentially, the presentation should be an overview of the paper content, presented in a professional manner that demonstrates your understanding of assessment, diagnosis (DSM-5) and treatment approaches, along with other concepts discussed throughout the course. The presentation is due in class on Thursday 10/16/14.
- Online Quizzes: Students are trusted to complete a total of five online quizzes, where questions are based on the textbook readings assigned for the class. Quizzes compose of multiple choice questions and must be completed prior to the assigned due date (please see the class schedule for specific due dates). While students are allowed to use the textbook during the online quiz taking, the best way to prepare for this approach of testing is to try and anticipate multiple choice questions, as you read through the material (this will also help you remember material and key concepts better).
- Online Video Material, Commentary and Critique: Students are expected to view a series of video clips (posted on the course's website) that depict or discuss addiction issues and write a 2-3 page commentary and critique, expressing their reactions to the video material, demonstrating their understanding to concepts discussed throughout the semester (due on Thursdays, 10/02/14 and 10/09/14).

Grading Criteria:

ACADEMIC POLICIES

Attendance Policy

Classroom attendance is an integral part of the academic experience; therefore, students are expected to attend all class sessions. If an absence is unavoidable, the student, prior to class, should communicate with the instructor. Arrangements should be made at that time for submission of any missed assignments. It is also expected that students arrive on time and not leave until the class is dismissed. Tardiness will result in a reduced grade for the course. If you cannot attend every class session you should consider dropping the course.

IMPORTANT:

- Missing one class session will drop the final grade by one letter grade (for example if a student earns a grade of “B” in the course, the final grade would be a “C”).
- Missing two or more class sessions will be cause for a failing grade.
- Note: For 15-week courses; missing two class sessions will result in a letter grade drop and three or more will cause a failing grade.

Drop Procedures

To drop a course, you must complete and submit a Schedule Change Request Form. The form can be accessed at the IDEAL Course Schedule webpage: <http://www.bridgeport.edu/academics/continuing/ideal-academic-degree-programs-and-certificates/ideal-course-schedule/>.

Please print and complete the form and fax the form to the IDEAL Office: 203-576-4537. Prior to dropping a course, the student should contact their IDEAL Academic Advisor to understand the implications to financial aid and/or degree plan progress.

Please review the drop fees and tuition refunds at the Academic Calendar; accessed at the IDEAL Course Schedule webpage (same link above).

Cell Phones

Cell phones must be turned off (or placed on “vibrate”) while in the classroom. A cell phone call is disruptive and disrespectful to the other students in the class.

Academic Dishonesty

The IDEAL program prohibits all forms of academic dishonesty. Academic dishonesty is normally defined as, but not limited to, the following two categories:

Cheating – Using inappropriate sources of information in an assignment or on a test. The following are examples of cheating taken from real student experiences:

Case #1: A student is enrolled in an introductory psychology course. He has co-workers who have taken the same course. As the end of the course approaches, he wonders how he will find the time to get the research paper finished, and asks one of his co-workers for help. His co-worker hands him a research paper that he submitted in a similar course. The student makes minor modifications to the paper, and submits it under his own name.

Case #2: A student enrolled in a humanities course is unsure about how to structure an essay. She is doing research on the World Wide Web, and comes across an essay written by a student from another university. Using her computer mouse, she copies and pastes the essay into her word processor. She goes to great lengths to re-word the paper in her own style, but essentially leaves the content and organization the same.

Plagiarism – Intentional as well as unintentional failure to acknowledge sources as well as the use of commercially available so-called “research papers” without full recognition of the source. Presenting as one’s own, the ideas, words, or products of another. The following are examples of plagiarism taken from real student experiences:

Case #3: A student is conducting research for a Civil War research paper. He has reviewed work on the Internet. Finding helpful information, he has summarized his findings without citing his sources. He believes that minor paraphrasing is all that is necessary.

Case #4: A student is writing a paper that requires her to address specific topics and problems in the assigned course textbook. She takes the information directly from the textbook with slight modification, without giving any citation. She thinks that since it is the course textbook, she doesn’t have to use quotations or citations.

Academic dishonesty applies to all courses, assignments or exams completed by students and submitted as their own original work, whether in person or by electronic means. The University does not tolerate cheating in any form. It is a serious breach of conduct with serious consequences. Instructors have the right to determine the appropriate penalty for academic dishonesty in their own courses; generally, however, such acts will result in a failing grade for the assignment and/or the course. The penalty for subsequent acts of academic dishonesty may include expulsion.

More information on how to recognize plagiarism can be found at this site: http://www.indiana.edu/~istd/plagiarism_test.html

Ethics Statement of Confidentiality

An integral component of an IDEAL course is student and faculty expression of personal experiences for the purpose of facilitating coursework. Students enrolled in the program are expected to honor confidentiality as it pertains to student disclosure. Shared information, comments, or opinions expressed by another student or the faculty member during the course of classroom discussion should never be used in a manner which is intended to humiliate, embarrass, harass, damage, or otherwise injure other students in their personal, public, or business lives. In addition, confidentiality must be upheld by not disclosing any information that would identify any particular individual.

ACADEMIC RESOURCE CENTER

The Academic Resource Center is available for IDEAL students seeking help in their studies. The Center is staffed by writing professionals and peer tutors. More information can be found at: <http://www.bridgeport.edu/pages/2209.asp> The Center is located on the 5th Floor of the Wahlstrom Library. Make an appointment or walk-in: Telephone: 203-576-4290. Online Tutoring is available at: www.etutoring.org. To use this free service you must have a UBNNet account.

Obtaining a UBNNet Account

Every registered student should obtain a UBNNet Account. The account allows you to access MyUB; the portal for grades, library services, Canvas online learning system. Also, the account allows you access to computers in the Library and computer labs, and provides an email account in which the University sends out information. Go to: <http://www.bridgeport.edu/ubnet> - Click on “New UBNNet Account” and follow the instructions.

The @bridgeport.edu email address is the official email the University uses to send information to you. You can have your bridgeport.edu email forwarded to any other private email account you use. Following the activation of your UBNNet account (takes 24 hours), login at: <http://www.bridgeport.edu/email> and click on “forwards” at the top of the page. Follow the directions to forward email messages to your other account.

Learning Management System (LMS) - Canvas

For all courses that use Canvas, you can access Canvas through the portal by using the myUB link. Faculty post class documents on Canvas e.g. syllabus, power points, discussion questions, case studies, current event articles, papers, reports etc. (save some trees). All students have access, and can download and copy the documents.

Accessing Your Grades & Schedule Online

The WebAdvisor online information system allows students to search for available classes, check grades, view semester class schedule and verify your personal profile. Grades are generally posted 2-3 weeks following the end of a course. To access WebAdvisor, login in to MyUB and follow the WebAdvisor menu on the right. If you are carrying a financial balance, access to WebAdvisor will be restricted.

Using the Library

Access to the Digital Library is through MyUB. On the MyUB home, in the central column, click on “myEureka Digital Library.” Research tools available:

- Search for books held at the library.
- Search the online databases for your academic field; business, counseling, human services, psychology, etc.
- Send questions to the Reference Librarian for assistance in research topics and searching strategy.

Using Computers

Open access computer labs are available at three locations:

- Bridgeport – 1st floor of the Wahlstrom library. Check library hours of operation at: <http://www.bridgeport.edu/library>.
- Stamford – Room D; Check open hours at: <http://www.bridgeport.edu/stamford>

- Waterbury – Computer Lab; Check open hours at:
<http://www.bridgeport.edu/waterbury>

Course Cancellations

Any emergency necessitating the canceling of courses will be announced by the University through the Emergency Notification Telephone Line, (203) 576-4159. Please call this number for information on course cancellations. Also, information will be posted under “Latest News” on the UB home page, (www.bridgeport.edu). Canceled classes will be made up either the week following the end of the course or in consultation between the instructor and the students as to day and time availability. Course cancellations are also announced on television and radio stations.
